UM WELCOMES STUDENTS WITH FREE LUNCH, MOVIE

MISSOULA—

The University of Montana will treat all new and returning students to a free lunch Friday, Aug. 29, on the UM Oval.

WelcomeFeast will be held from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., with music by singer/songwriter David Boone. Prizes will be given away during the event, and volleyball will follow from 1 to 3 p.m.

The annual event aims to help students connect early with members of the campus community and provides information about student affairs, academic affairs and other campus programs and services.

This year's event organizers are working to make WelcomeFeast more eco-friendly. Recycling information will be available, and a water cooler will be provided to fill reusable water bottles.

At 9 p.m. on the Oval, a free movie – “Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull” – will be shown on Missoula's largest outdoor movie screen. The movie is rated PG-13.

For more information call Lee Clark, WelcomeFeast organizer, at 243-5590 or e-mail lee.clark@umontana.edu.
